

Contents

Biographies	1
Introduction	7
Part I
The context of the wine business	11
Chapter 1
The world of wine	13
Introduction	13
1. The history of wine in Western Europe	13
2. New wines and new markets	14
2.1. A new awakening to quality	14
2.2. New wines	14
3. The beginning of a scientific approach	15
3.1. Louis Pasteur	16
3.2. The scourges of the nineteenth century	16
4. The globalization of wine	18
4.1. Protecting wines	18
4.2. The challenge on the international market	18
5. The modern world of wine	19
5.1. Science and technology: friend or foe?	19
5.2. Consumers' concerns	20
6. Emerging themes	21
References	22
Chapter 2
The economics of the world wine industry	25
Introduction	25
1. Wine: a globalized product	25
2. Heterogeneity of supply and ignorance of end consumption	27
3. Quality wine? Yes, but at what price?	29
Conclusion	31
References	32

Chapter 3

Wine law: concepts, methods, issues and prospects	35
Introduction	35
1. The function of wine law	36
1.1. Why is there a need for wine law?	36
1.2. Is there a wine law?	36
2. Wine law procedures	37
2.1. Law within its context	37
2.2. The internationalization of wine law	38
2.3. Multi-level regulation	39
2.4. The comparative approach	40
3. An outline of wine law	41
3.1. The protection of appellations of origin	41
3.2. Consumption control	42
Conclusion	43
References	44

Chapter 4

The business of wine	47
Introduction	47
1. Why is wine the way it is?	48
2. How is the wine production industry structured?	52
Conclusion	54
References	54

Part II

Wine management	57
------------------------------	----

Chapter 5

Patterns of innovation and change: contours in the global wine landscape	59
Introduction	59
1. Effective management of wine businesses	61
1.1. Effective management: the failed era of mass production	62
1.2. Effective management: catering to a heterogeneous landscape	64
1.3. Effective management: the benefits of minimalism	65
1.4. Effective management: innovative pathways from global to local	65
1.5. Effective management: generating sustainable returns from excellence	66
1.6. Effective management: thinking in patterns	67
2. The Lake's Folly story – a best practice model	68
Conclusion and managerial implications	69
Questions	69
References	70

Chapter 6

Strategic planning in the wine industry: from resources to niches and vice versa 73

Introduction	73
1. Definitions and approaches	73
2. Niche wines and niche strategy in the wine business	74
3. A model for the wine business	75
3.1. Internal factors	75
3.2. External factors	77
4. Resource-based niches	78
5. Case study: heroic viticulture in the Cinque Terre, Italy	80
Conclusion and managerial implications	81
Questions	82
References	82

Chapter 7

Entrepreneurship and leadership in the wine industry 85

Introduction	85
1. Competition in the wine industry	86
2. Entrepreneurship	87
2.1. The nature of entrepreneurship	87
2.2. Entrepreneurs and opportunities	88
3. Leadership	90
4. Entrepreneurs and leadership – Some case studies	92
4.1. Chuck House and Jeffrey Caldewey, ICON Design Group, USA	92
4.2. French entrepreneurs launch new Champagne house – Champagne Brimoncourt ...	93
4.3. A small Chilean winery producing author wines – I Wines	94
Conclusion and managerial implications	94
Questions	95
References	95

Chapter 8

Wine territories: clusters, terroir and appellations 99

Introduction	99
1. The territory and its resources	100
2. Forms of territorial organization: the cluster	102
3. Forms of territorial organization: the name of the place	105
3.1. The terroir strategy	105
3.2. Appellations of origin in Europe	106
3.3. Geographic indications	107
4. Case study: two methods of enhancing the same grape variety	108
Conclusion and managerial implications	109

Questions	110
References	110

Chapter 9

Finance in the wine industry	113
Introduction	113
1. Finance and the world of wine	113
2. Financial management in the wine industry: a case for working capital	114
2.1. Fundamental financial mechanisms: value creation	115
2.2. Financial management tools	115
2.3. Financial management in the wine sector: the issue of financing working capital	120
3. When growth leads to bankruptcy: growth potential and sustainable growth	121
3.1. Growth and financial needs	121
3.2. Maximum growth: internal growth, sustainable growth	122
4. Case study: the “fable” case or the winegrowing version of the Frog and the Ox, and more... ..	124
4.1. Report sent to Mr. Frog by the Ant Company	126
4.2. Diagnosis of the situation	127
Conclusion	129
Questions	130
References	130

Chapter 10

Managing people: human resource management in the wine industry	131
Introduction	131
1. Definition of human resource management	132
2. A framework for implementing wine HRM	132
2.1. Linkage to wine business strategy	133
2.2. Work/Job Analysis	134
2.3. Compensation and benefits	134
2.4. Recruiting and staffing	135
2.5. Training and development	136
2.6. Employee motivation and creativity	137
2.7. HR metrics and documentation	137
3. Legal issues in wine HRM	138
4. Case study on California cellars	139
Conclusion and managerial implications	140
Questions	141
References	141

Part III

Wine marketing 143

Chapter 11

Consumer behaviour insights and wine 145

Introduction 145

1. Context: demand and choice 146

2. Consumer interfaces for wine 146

3. A framework for understanding wine consumer behaviour 147

4. Consumer behaviour constructs and market segmentation approaches 148

5. Wine consumer behaviour and market segmentation 150

5.1. Socio-demographic and geographic factors 150

5.2. Sensory preferences and demographics 151

5.3. Cross-national behaviour 152

5.4. Occasion-related consumption 153

5.5. Volume-based segmentation 153

5.6. Risk perception and risk-reduction strategies (RRS) 154

5.7. Lifestyle-based (psychographical) segmentation 155

5.8. Wine choice cues 155

6. Case study 157

Conclusion and managerial implications 158

Questions 158

References 158

Chapter 12

Brand management in the wine industry 163

Introduction 163

1. Branding wine 163

1.1. The importance of branding 163

1.2. The wine industry and brands 165

1.3. The internationalization of wine brands 166

2. Managing branding in the wine industry 167

3. Case study: the renaissance of Commandaria 171

Conclusion and managerial implications 172

Questions 173

References 173

Chapter 13

Promotion and events in the wine business 177

Introduction 177

1. What to promote about wines and wineries 178

1.1. Product features 178

1.2. Related winery services 179

- 1.3. Winemakers and ambassadors 179
- 1.4. Awards and ratings 180
- 1.5. Origin features 180
- 2. Promotional strategies 182
- 3. Tools for promoting wine 184
 - 3.1. Media 184
 - 3.2. Sales promotions 185
 - 3.3. On-site communication 185
 - 3.4. Public relations 186
- 4. Managing promotion and events 186
 - 4.1. Different promotional strategies around the world 186
 - 4.2. Best and worst practices in wine promotion 187
- 5. Case study: changing the promotional message to change a product’s positioning ... 188
- Conclusion and managerial implications 189
- Questions 190
- References 190

Chapter 14

Wine distribution 193

Introduction 193

- 1. Definition of the distribution concept 193
 - 1.1. Distribution: changing types of sales or channels of distribution 193
 - 1.2. The length of a channel or circuit 194
 - 1.3. Customer Relationship Management systems 195
- 2. The use of distribution channels in the wine industry 196
 - 2.1. Physical sales 197
 - 2.2. Distance selling 200
 - 2.3. Itinerant sales 201
 - 2.4. Home party sales through customers who organize tastings of the wine 202
 - 2.5. Vending machine sales 203
- 3. Case study: the Bordeaux wine trade, a complex and original system of distribution .. 203

Conclusion and managerial implications 204

Questions 205

References 206

Part IV

Managing in the contemporary world of wine 207

Chapter 15

Wine, hospitality and leisure culture 209

Introduction 209

- 1. What is the hospitality industry? 209
- 2. Food and wine synergy 210

3. Wine provision in restaurants and bars	212
4. The psychology of wine pricing in the on-trade	214
5. Consumer behaviour in public environments	216
6. The role of the sommelier	216
7. Case study	217
Conclusion and managerial implications	218
Questions	219
References	219

Chapter 16

Wine tourism	221
Introduction	221
1. Context	222
1.1. What is wine tourism?	222
1.2. Who are the wine tourists?	222
2. How should wine tourism be developed at a national, regional and winery level?	223
2.1. At a national level	223
2.2. At a regional level	224
2.3. Developing a successful winery experience	227
3. Wine tourism in Burgundy, the French paradox	229
Conclusion and managerial implications	232
Questions	233
References	233

Chapter 17

Luxury wine marketing	235
Introduction	235
1. Defining luxury wine	236
1.1. Price	236
1.2. Quality	236
1.3. Rarity	237
1.4. Aesthetics	237
1.5. Extraordinariness	238
1.6. Non-functional associations	238
2. Major consumer categories: aspirers vs. connoisseurs	239
2.1. Aspirers	239
2.2. Connoisseurs	240
3. Wine brands and the dilemma of authenticity	241
4. Champagne brand's masstige strategies	241
5. Case study: luxury wine counterfeits	243
Conclusion and managerial implications	244
Questions	244
References	244

Chapter 18

Conducting e-business in the wine sector 247

Introduction 247

1. The development of wine e-business 248

 1.1. The initial stages 248

 1.2. Wine in Web 1.0 249

 1.3. The virtual wine conversation era 249

 1.4. Blogging – transitioning wine from virtual promotion to virtual conversation 250

2. The implications of the e-commerce revolution 251

 2.1. Responding to Web 2.0 251

 2.2. E-Research for market needs 251

3. The challenge of e-commerce with wine 252

4. Case examples 253

 4.1. Capital Wines 253

 4.2. Digital wine communication 256

Conclusion and managerial implications 258

Questions 258

References 258

Acronyms, contractions and abbreviations 261

Index 263